

All food employees in Spokane County who handle unwrapped foods or beverages are required to hold a current Washington State Food Worker card (WAC 246-217). Food Worker cards are $10.00.

To obtain a card or renew an expiring card, you must take a course and successfully complete a test covering the course material. Courses and tests are available in eight languages: English, Spanish, Korean, Russian, Mandarin, Cantonese, Vietnamese, and Cambodian.

How to Get a Food Worker Card:

Come to the Spokane Regional Health District (SRHD)

- Take the class, the test, and pay for your card at SRHD Mondays, Thursdays & Fridays – 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. 1101 West College Avenue, Spokane, Room 402 (4th floor)
- You will need a photo ID and payment of $10.00.
Payment can be made with Visa, MasterCard, or Discover credit cards, cash, debit or money orders. Personal checks will not be accepted. Payments will now be taken at our Central Receiving area located on the health district's main floor.

Do everything online

- Take the class, the test, and pay for your card online. Go to srhd.org/links/fwc-test.asp
- You must be able to make payment by credit or debit card and you must be connected to a printer.
- You will print your card after successful completion of the test and payment has been made.

Take the class and test online – pay for and pick up your card at SRHD

- Use this option if you don't have a credit or debit card for payment, and/or the ability to print a card. This is also a good option if you qualify for a 3 or 5 year card:
 - A three-year card (renewal card) can be issued to you if you currently have an unexpired Washington State Food Worker card.
 - A five-year card can be issued to you if you provide proof that you have completed an approved advanced training course and you have a Washington State Food Worker card that is due to expire within the next 60 days.
- Take the online class and test. Go to srhd.org/links/fwc-test.asp - Stop after you pass the test and before making payment.
