

Public Health Labeling for Packaged Foods

Label must contain:

- Common name of the food
- All ingredients, including food additives, in descending order of predominance
- An accurate declaration of the quantity of contents
- The name, and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor

Public Health - Always working for a safer and healthier community